

Regulations for the Use of Electronic Resources by Alumni of I-Shou University

Adopted by the Library Advisory Committee on May 25, 2011 in the second semester of the academic year 2010
Amendments to Articles 1 and 3~9 ratified by the President on March 21, 2013.

- Article 1 The Regulations for the Use of Electronic Resources by Alumni of I-Shou University (hereinafter referred to as the “Regulations”) are enacted by the Office of Library and Information Services (hereinafter referred to as the “Office”) so that the University’s graduates can continue using electronic resources housed by the University.
- Article 2 Applicants must be former students of the University who have been officially enrolled for one year or more (hereinafter referred to as “alumni”).
- Article 3 Alumni who want to use electronic resources of the Office shall apply for a library card in advance pursuant to the Regulations for ISU Alumni to Apply for Library Card.
- Article 4 The Office will provide one personal account and password to alumni after they submit an application form for using electronic resources. The personal account and password shall be valid for only one year and must not be disclosed to a third party to use the electronic resources of the Office.
- Article 5 The electronic resources available to alumni are those that can be used by alumni as authorized by electronic resources providers.
- Article 6 Alumni who have no library card shall pay the guarantee money of NT$1,000 to the Office before being allowed to use electronic resources.
- Article 7 Alumni who are found getting involved in any illegal activities shall be penalized by the law, and the guarantee money (NT$1,000) shall be forfeited. In addition, such alumni shall be barred from further borrowing of books and use of electronic resources.
- Article 8 Any matter not mentioned herein shall be governed by relevant regulations and rules of the Office.
- Article 9 The Regulations become effective on the third day of promulgation after being adopted by the Library and Information Planning Committee and ratified by the President.

Note: In the event of any disputes or misunderstanding as to the interpretation of the language or terms of these Regulations, the Chinese language version shall prevail.
